

The City of Harrisburg
110 East Locust Street

Proclamation

Whereas, the arts and humanities are the embodiment of all things beautiful and entertaining in the world -- the enduring record of human achievement; and

Whereas, the arts and humanities enhance every aspect of life in The City of Harrisburg -- improving our economy, enriching our civic life, driving tourism, and exerting a profound positive influence on the education of our children; and

Whereas, arts education research shows that the arts help to foster discipline, creativity, imagination, self-expression, and problem solving skills while also helping to develop a heightened appreciation of beauty and cross-cultural understanding; and

Whereas, we use the humanities -- history, literature, philosophy -- to explore what it means to be human; and

Whereas, the arts and humanities play a unique and intrinsically valuable role in the lives of our families, our communities, and our state; and

Whereas, the month of October has been recognized as "National Arts and Humanities Month" by thousands of arts and cultural organizations, communities, and states across the country, as well as by the White House and Congress for more than two decades:

Now, Therefore, I, Eric E. Gregg, Mayor of the City of Harrisburg, do hereby proclaim October 2012 as "Arts & Humanities Month" and call upon our citizens to celebrate and promote the arts and culture in the Land of Lincoln.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Harrisburg to be affixed this 26th day of September, 2012.

Eric E. Gregg, Mayor
