

City of Highland Park Mayoral Proclamation

Recognizing

ILLINOIS ARTS & HUMANITIES MONTH

WHEREAS, the arts and humanities are the embodiment of all things beautiful and entertaining in the world – the enduring record of human achievement; and

WHEREAS, the arts and humanities enhance every aspect of life in Highland Park – improving our economy, enriching our civic life, driving tourism, and exerting a profound positive influence on the education of our children; and

WHEREAS, arts education research shows that the arts help to foster discipline, creativity, imagination, self-expression, and problem solving skills while also helping to develop a heightened appreciation of beauty and cross-cultural understanding; and

WHEREAS, we use the humanities – history, literature, philosophy – to explore what it means to be human; and

WHEREAS, the arts and humanities play a unique and intrinsically valuable role in the lives of our families, our communities, and our state; and

WHEREAS, the month of October has been recognized as National Arts and Humanities Month by thousands of arts and cultural organizations, communities, and states across the country, as well as by the White House and Congress for more than two decades.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nancy R. Roterling, Mayor of the City of Highland Park and the City Council of the City of Highland Park, do hereby proclaim October 2012 as in the City of Highland Park and call upon all citizens to celebrate and promote the arts and culture in the Land of Lincoln.

DATED this 24th day of September, 2012.

Nancy R. Roterling, Mayor

Shirley Fitzgerald, City Clerk
