Literary Awards Program

The Literary Awards Program recognizes Illinois writers and promotes greater awareness of non-commercial publishing in the state. The award encourages Illinois not-for-profit literary publications to publish and disseminate new work by living Illinois writers and poets. Awards are given to both the selected writers and to the publications (print or web-based) that released work to the public.

Eligibility Requirements

All applicants must:

- Be tax exempt (501c3) organizations registered as not-for-profit corporations in good standing with the Illinois Secretary of State, or units of government (i.e., school, school district, park district, library district), or institutions of higher education. Refer to the Proof of Eligibility page on the IACA website for specific details and verification requirements.
- Submit an application utilizing a SlideRoom account registered to the applicant organization or publication.
- Submit all requested application materials by the deadline.

The following magazines are not eligible to apply:

- Magazines which are primarily a vehicle for the publication of work by K-12 students.
- Magazines associated with colleges or universities which are primarily a vehicle for the publication of work by faculty or students.

Award Amount

Companion awards of $1,000 will be given to selected Illinois writers and to the publications that nominated their work.

 - Consist of interviews, reviews, or literary translations.
- Nominations must be made by the editorial staff of the applicant magazine.
- Editorial staff may not nominate their own work.
- A maximum of ten pieces can be nominated by any one publication/applicant.
- Nominations can include a combination of poetry, fiction, and creative non-fiction pieces.
- More than one piece by the same writer can be nominated, but each piece will count toward the maximum of ten.

Review Criteria and Process

Evaluation Criteria

Artistic quality of each selection nominated is the sole criterion for review.

Review Process

The application is received by the IACA from the IACA SlideRoom system and is assigned an application number. The IACA Grants Office will send acknowledgment of receipt of the application by email. Acknowledgment will include an IACA application number to be used in future inquiries regarding that application. Applications which have been ruled ineligible or incomplete will not be reviewed.

Applications are reviewed by an advisory jury comprised of literary arts professionals. Each nominated selection is evaluated solely on artistic merit independent of all other nominated pieces. The jury will meet via conference call to discuss the nominated selections and make final recommendations for the awards. The jury's recommendations are presented to the IACA Board for its consideration and approval.

Notification and Compliance

Notification

Applicants/nominators and the awarded writers will be notified of the Council's decision on their application via email. If funded, this notification will include required materials, which must be completed and returned to the in order for payment to be authorized and processed. Once these documents and copies of other requested materials are returned to the IACA, it will take up to six months for payment to be issued by the State Comptroller.

Before funds are released, residency verification must be received from the awarded artists. This verification must show that the artist was a legal resident of the state of Illinois for the twelve month period prior to the application deadline.

Taxability of Awards

The Internal Revenue Code provides that the full amount of a Literary Award is taxable to its recipient. For questions regarding income-tax liability, contact the Internal Revenue Service or a personal tax advisor.
